Beskrivelse

From the very childhood, I was engaged in farming and all related things. I have grown up on the farm and I am aware of every farming process. My parents have a lot of cows and pigs so I have to help them to take care of these domestic animals. The aim of my practice in Denmark is to gain work experience, also learn and take highly advanced technologies from well-educated professionals. Denmark is the country with the increasing mechanization of agriculture, combined with changes in farm management and organization and as a result, it makes it one of the best countries in the agricultural area
