My name is Ivan Franjić. I am citizen of the Republic of Croatia. I am 33 years old, married and the father of two children.

I graduated from the school for electrician in Bosnia and Herzegovina, according to the EU VET program of Bosnia and Herzegovina prepared in cooperation with the European Union Vocational Education Reforma Programme. I also underwent forklift management training. I have 14 years of work experience. I know: work on a farm, work as an electrician, to drive tractor, do heating in residential buildings, work with water pipes in residential buildings, to work finish work on internal walls, to operate an electric pallet and work on a combine harvester.

I was born and grew up in the countryside. My parents have always raised domestic animals (pigs, chickens and cows) and together with them I have learned everything about care and work around these animals. I have been in this job for over 20 years. In addition to the farming of farm animals, we grew barley, wheat and corn and I learned everything in connection with the cultivation of these crops. In addition to the cultivation of these crops, they also grew potatoes, pumpkins and other types of vegetables used in the household.

I am educated in a country that does not offer young people the opportunity to learn and progress. That is why I did my best in every job and tried to learn as much as possible, to do my job as well as possible and I did not limited my learning and work only to the workplace. Even after work, I tried to learn as much as possible and expand my harvest to other professions.

I am responsible, ready for teamwork, willing to learn and improve, gain new experiences, to adapt to the new environment and working conditions that are very different from those I am used to. I applide on your site.
