

Romeo D. Dishwasher

ID: 7729

I am Romeo Valencia Diaz from the Philippines. In spite of holding a Bachelor's Degree in BS Commerce - Management, and was able to practice my profession, I'd still wish to work abroad where I could be able to continue my passion in the kitchen tasks. Aside from having a good track records on my professional career here in the Philippines, I would still be more than willing to start anew and learn other things be it in hospitality, factory, or farming industries in EU and at the same time, while serving and enjoys doing my passion, I could be able to take the chance to know and understand other cultures particularly Europeans.

I am well versed in administrative, operations, and customer service jobs which I think could support and conductively get aligned company's vision.

If given the change of selection, I will ensure the company of my honesty with integrity as far as my job is concerned.

Description

I graduated B.S. Commerce - Management. During my studies, I used to work in a fastfood chain as a Service Crew - Jollibee Foods, Inc. While having been struggling to support my studies, I was fortunately been able to work in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia as Restaurant Supervisor. After my contract, I was able to save enough to sustain my last school year. And in March 2003, I had finished my studies and graduated bearing the aforementioned profession.
